

Administrative Law Section

The Administrative Law Section is comprised of over 1,100 attorneys who practice local, state, or federal administrative law. Our members include judges, professors, city attorneys, agency attorneys, and attorneys in private practice.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

The benefits of membership in the Administrative Law Section include:

1. Reduced tuition at high quality continuing legal education courses;
2. Four newsletters a year which include summaries of recent state appellate administrative law cases, Division of Administrative Hearings (DOAH) cases, agency snapshots, articles of interest to administrative practitioners, and announcements;
3. Legislative updates;
4. Invitations to an annual meeting and other specialized events; and
5. The opportunity to network with colleagues across the state.

WHO MAY JOIN

The Administrative Law Section welcomes anyone as a member who has an interest in administrative law. Non-attorneys and law students are also welcome to join the Administrative Law Section. Annual dues are only $25.00 for attorneys and affiliate members and $20.00 for law students.
