- A. Consideration of Minutes. The minutes of the June 28, 2019 Executive Council Meeting were moved for approval by Richard Shoop, seconded by Suzanne Van Wyk, and adopted by acclamation.
- B. Treasurer's Report. Tabitha Jackson gave the Treasurer's report. She reported that the Section's budget was on track and that no amendments were needed at this time.
- C. Bar Foundation Donation. Suzanne Van Wyk asked that the Section consider a donation to The Florida Bar Foundation. She noted that at the Long-Range Planning Meeting a $500.00 donation had been discussed. Brian Newman said that he would like to see the donation be a recurring one if future budgets allow. A motion to amend the budget to make a $500.00 donation to the Foundation was made by Lyyli Van Whittle, seconded by Gigi Rollini and passed unanimously.
- D. Recognition of Calbrail Banner. Brian Newman asked that the Executive Council recognize the extraordinary support the Section receives from its Program Administrator, Calbrail Banner. By acclamation, the much-appreciated contributions by Calbrail were recognized.
- E. Chair's Report. In his Chair's Report, Brian Newman discussed the following past and upcoming events.
1. DOAH Trial Academy. The first DOAH Trial Academy was held September 9-13, 2019. Twenty students participated in the program and all earned 42 hours of CLE credit, all of which applies toward Board Certification qualification. Awards were given as follows: Best Opening Statement – Virginia Edwards, Department of Health; Best Direct Examination – Amanda McKibben, Department of Agriculture; Best Cross Examination – Johnny ElHachem, Division of Pari-Mutuel Wagering. The transcript of the mock hearing held before Judge Cohen has been circulated and PROs are due November 4. An award will be given for the best PRO submitted. After the PRO award is announced, a meeting will be held with the students to get feedback for improving the program next year. Additionally, Richard Shoop designed a mentor program and many of the Trial Academy Students are participating in the program as a pilot project.

2. Update on ALS mixer events. The Young Lawyers Committee has been working hard. In particular, Tabitha Jackson, Brittany Dambly, Paul Drake, James Ross, Ross Vickers and Kelly Kibbey have been doing a great job for the ALS.

A Back to School Drive was held August 8 at Happy Motoring Benefiting Boys Town. More than 40 backpacks filled with assorted school supplies were collected at the event.

A Guardian Ad Litem event held October 4 at El Jalisco. ALS collected $525.00 in cash and $280.00 in gift cards to benefit GAL.

There will be a Thanksgiving food-drive event November 12 at Harry's to benefit Pineview Elementary students and families.

Events in progress for the spring with the FSU College of Law Student Bar Association include a possible lunch with an ALS panel/speakers, a table-for-eight- style event in the law school rotunda with a guest speaker, and participation in the SBA golf tournament with requested sponsorship.

Calbrail has worked with the Young Lawyers Committee to update and improve the email list, and fliers for events are now being distributed to all ALS members.

3. ALS Christmas party. Brian Newman generously volunteered to host a Christmas party at his house. Calbrail is going to assist with a poll to gauge interest in an ALS Christmas party. More details to follow.
4. Florida Government Bar Association. The Florida Government Bar Association is a non-Florida-Bar organization that hosts monthly networking CLE luncheons for members and other CLE events and fundraisers for local charities. The President of FGBA, Amanda McKibben, is an ALS member as are its Treasurer, Kelly Kibbey, and its Young Lawyers Chair, Annie Prescott. FGBA and the ALS jointly sponsored a CLE program on Administrative Practice for Young Lawyers on October 4 at the First DCA that was very well attended. Speakers included ALS past chair Jowanna Oates, ALS member Paul Drake, ALJ Jessica Varn, Chief Judge MacIver, and ALS member Amy Schrader. FGBA is sponsoring another CLE on November 8 on Advanced Topics in Administrative Practice that will be held at DOAH. Speakers include ALJs John Van Laningham, Hetal Desai, Robert Telfer and Andrew Manko. A happy hour will be held at the Brass Tap following the event.

He next discussed the upcoming legislative session and that the Bar plans to again ask the legislature to authorize payment of Bar dues for government lawyers as it has in the past. He also discussed the contributions by the Young Lawyers Section.

- G. Ad Hoc Rules Committee. Larry Sellers also reported on behalf of the Ad Hoc Rules Committee which consists of a number of ALJs and administrative law practitioners. The Committee has met approximately 10 times and has circulated several drafts and has spent time reviewing comments it received on the drafts. He said that there had been some discussion regarding whether agencies should be required to accept e-filings, but ultimately decided against that, leaving up to each agency to decide whether it will accept e-filings. He discussed a number of other issues they considered, including qualified representatives, intervention, state holidays, service of pleadings after 5pm, whether discovery should be allowed in informal proceedings, and motions to disqualify. One item still under consideration is a possible rule regarding vacation of final orders. The Committee is planning to prepare a final report for consideration by the Executive Council, but any changes must ultimately be approved by the Administration Commission.
- H. Law School Liaison. No report.
- I. Council of Sections. Clark Jennings gave the report. He noted that the Council of Sections has raised its fees from $300 to $500. There was a brief discussion of the Section Leadership training that is offered every other year, and which is very good.

  3. Government Lawyer. There was no report.
  4. YLD Liaison. Tabitha Jackson reported for YLD. She initially asked that Council members let Paul Drake know if any of their contact information has changed so the Section's website information could be updated. Regarding YLD, she reported that YLD is now an affiliate of the Bar, and as an affiliate it can now apply for grant money for health and wellness events, that she hopes they will apply for.
  5. RPPTL. There was no report.
  6. Labor and Employment. There was no report.
  7. Animal Law. Gregg Morton gave the report for the Animal Law Section. He said they were doing some judicial outreach and was looking into a joint happy hour with our Section. He briefly discussed legislative issues such as opposing a bear hunt and supporting a ban on shark finning. After he finished his report on the Animal Law Section, there was some discussion about possible outreach to the Education Law Standing Committee, and the Chair asked that topic be added to the long-range planning agenda.

8. TFB Diversity and Inclusion. There was no report.
  9. Appellate Court Rules. Gigi Rollini said there are currently no referrals to the administrative law subcommittee, but that Rule 9.190 continues to get pulled into proposed revisions by other subcommittees of the Appellate Rules Committee. She gave as a recent example an issue involving Rule 9.400 and motions for attorneys' fees.
  - K. DOAH Update. Judge Van Wyk gave the DOAH update. She began by recognizing Judge McIvor's appointment as the new Chief Judge. She next stated that Judge Scott Boyd had recently retired and that he was presented with a Section award at his retirement party. She also stated that there were currently four ALJ openings and that Chief Judge McIvor was interviewing candidates. Chief Judge McIvor stated that there were a large number of really good applicants.
  - L. South Florida Chapter Update. Sharlee Edwards gave the update. The Chapter recently gave a CLE last month that several law firms assisted with, and is currently working with the National African American Insurance Association on a joint event which will include work force diversity and insurance regulatory issues. - IV. Old Business. There was no old business.
  - V. New Business. There was no new business.
  - VI. Time and Place of Next Meeting. The next meeting will be the long-range planning retreat which will take place sometime in April. The next meeting after that will take place at the Annual Convention which will be held in Orlando this year in June.

The meeting was then adjourned.

Committee name: Publications

Person submitting report and position with committee: Jowanna N. Oates, Co-Chair

Please summarize the committee's activity since the date of the last Executive Council meeting (November 2019): The committee facilitated the distribution of a high-quality newsletter to the membership via email on a quarterly basis.

Please describe the committee's top three accomplishments for the past program year:

1. Moving the newsletter from a print publication to an electronic format.
2. Recruiting new authors for newsletter and Florida Bar Journal.
3. Working collaboratively with the Section's Webmaster to ensure the Section's publications are on the website.

Please describe three goals for the committee in the next program year:

1. Continue to publish the newsletter timely on a quarterly basis.
2. Continue to publish in the Florida Bar Journal
3. Create a database of topics for authors.

How can the Executive Council and its officers help this committee in the next program year? (Feel free to make recommendations regarding assignments, budgeting, scheduling, training, etc.).

It would be helpful for the officers and executive council members to recruit authors for agency snapshots and feature articles for the newsletter and authors for the Florida Bar Journal. It would also be helpful for the officers and executive councils to submit topics to the committee co-chairs.

End of the Year Committee Report

Due:

Date: June 5, 2020

Committee name: Long Range Planning Committee

Person submitting report and position with committee: Gar Chisenhall

Please summarize the committee's activity since the date of the last Executive Council meeting (November 2019): The Long Range Planning Committee ("the Committee") has decided that the best way to serve the Section would be to develop a short list of recommendations for the Section to consider during the Fall meeting, which is anticipated to occur in November of 2020.

Please describe the committee's top three accomplishments for the past program year:

1. The Committee has formulated a plan to study other sections (including but not limited to the Appellate Practice, Health Law, Solo & Small Firm, and Trial Lawyers Sections) in order to ascertain if there are aspects of those Sections' operations that our Section can emulate.
2. The Committee has made progress in promoting the revised SFGAP examination at recent CLEs. The Committee is also considering making other recommendations to the SFGAP committee that could potentially increase the number of people who sit for the exam.
3. The Committee is assisting in the process of collecting more study materials to make available to those preparing to sit for the SFGAP exam. If the Section continues to produce a webinar series for certification candidates then it could be beneficial to coordinate this effort with future webinar courses.

Please describe three goals for the committee in the next program year:

The Committee will submit a short list of recommendations during the Executive Council's Fall Meeting that is expected to include the following: (1) aspects of other sections' operations that our Section can emulate; (2) how best to facilitate the continuing development of the South Florida Chapter and the prospective start of a Central Florida Chapter; and (3) the best way for the Section to continue its recent success with pairing social activities with charitable endeavors.

With regard to the second goal, the Committee would like to note that Bruce Lamb and Katherine McGinnis are already formulating a plan to organize a Central Florida Chapter. They have assembled an e-mail list and were discussing a live event prior to the pandemic's start.

How can the Executive Council and its officers help this committee in the next program year? (Feel free to make recommendations regarding assignments, budgeting, scheduling, training, etc.) The Committee believes that the Executive Council can be most helpful by assisting with ensuring that there is follow-through in achieving Section goals. One potential way to accomplish that could be for the Executive Council to review the previously-adopted long-range plan (currently posted on the Section's website) to assess which goals have been achieved, whether some need to be revised, and whether new ones should be added. In the alternative, the Executive Council could delegate that task to the Committee.

End of the Year Committee Report

Date: May 18, 2020

Committee name: Nominating

Person submitting report and position with committee: Jowanna N. Oates, Chair

Please summarize the committee's activity since the date of the last Executive Council meeting (November 2019): The committee has facilitated elections for the section's awards and officers.

Please describe the committee's top three accomplishments for the past program year:

1. Recruiting new individuals for the executive council.
2. Recruiting new individuals for the open officer position.
3. Facilitating the elections process for awards and officers.

Please describe three goals for the committee in the next program year:

1. Make the awards nomination process even easier.
2. Continue to look for new individuals for the executive council.
3. Ensure that the section continues to maintain the aspirational goal of maintaining a balance between government attorneys and private practitioners.

How can the Executive Council and its officers help this committee in the next program year? (Feel free to make recommendations regarding assignments, budgeting, scheduling, training, etc.)

The executive council and officers should help the committee to identify individuals for officers/executive council positions. Additionally, each member should submit an individual for one of the section awards.

REPORT FROM The Florida Bar Board of Governors

The Florida Bar Board of Governors met on January 31, 2020 in Tallahassee. The major actions of the board and reports received included:

Florida Chief Justice Charles T. Canady updated members of the Board about issues before the judicial branch and expressed gratitude for the very good start for state courts in the budget process underway in the Legislature. A number of priorities identified in the courts' budget request and its legislative agenda are included in initial budgets proposed separately in the Senate and the House of Representatives the week of January 27. Bar President John Stewart said the Bar's number one strategic plan objective is to ensure the judicial system as a coequal branch of government is fair, impartial, adequately funded. President Stewart said The Florida Bar will continue to advocate that the courts be open to all by working with the executive and legislative branches to achieve this objective, particularly in advocating for funding to recruit and retain quality judges. The regular session of the Legislature is scheduled to conclude March 13. The full House and Senate still must approve versions of the budget, negotiate any differences into an identical spending plan, and then forward it to Gov. Ron DeSantis.

In addition to supporting the courts' legislative requests, The Florida Bar is monitoring bills of interest to the legal profession. For weekly updates on proposed legislation, the session schedule, links to contact legislators and to other information sources, as well as the policies on Florida Bar advocacy and all approved legislative positions, please visit the Legislative Activity section.

A request for the Board's input on a proposal by the Florida Commission on Access to Civil Justice to amend Bar rules to allow registration of Advanced Florida Registered Paralegals was referred to the Board's Rules Committee for review and recommendations to be reported back to the Board in May. The access commission, which plans to submit the proposal directly to the Supreme Court, expects that creating this new registration that would allow the provision of limited legal services to law firm clients who are handling some legal matters pro se will expand access to justice. The proposal was circulated to all Bar sections and the comments received were also referred to the Rules Committee to consider. Read more in the Bar News.

At the request of the Out of State Division, an amendment was approved to allow for co-sponsorship of professionally recorded CLE courses by the Bar's CLE committee. The amendment updates a 2015 redesign of the CLE administrative fee and overhead structure that was undertaken before the massive shift and availability of online video and on-demand CLE.

The Board approved an amendment to the comment to Rule 4-7.18, Direct Contact with Prospective Clients, to clarify that lawyers may initiate the exchange of contact information at a business-related event or in business-related social media because those forums are at least in part intended to facilitate networking.

In addition, the Board approved three lawyer slates for each of the vacancies on the state's 26 judicial nominating commissions. The nominations will be sent to Gov. DeSantis who will make the final appointments.

The annual Pro Bono Awards Ceremony was held on the day before the Board meeting at the Florida Supreme Court. Twenty-two circuit recipients were honored with Florida Bar President's Awards along with a Florida Bar Young Lawyers Division member and all of the recipients of the Chief Justice's annual pro bono awards: Tobias Simon, Distinguished Judicial Service, Distinguished Federal Judicial Service, Law Firm Commendation and Voluntary Bar Association. Watch the video of the ceremony on the Florida Channel or visit Florida Bar News for full coverage.

For the first time in the history of The Florida Bar, the Board of Governors met via Zoom video conference on May 15, 2020. The major actions of the Board and reports received included:

Florida Supreme Court Chief Justice Charles Canady provided a COVID-19 update from the courts. He stated that the phased resumption of jury trials will likely be temporary and regional. Additional recommendations are expected from the Workgroup on the Continuity of Court Operations and Proceedings During and After COVID-19. In addition, the Chief Justice praised Florida's legal community for the way it has responded to the pandemic. Read more in this Florida Bar News article.

Note: The Florida Supreme Court issued two orders on May 21, 2020, one creating a new pilot program for civil jury trials to be held using remote technology and one on new health and safety measures for the courts. The Bar News has more information here.

Special Committee on Non-Voting Board Appointments Chair and Former President Eugene Pettis reported on the panel's extensive review of Standing Board Policy 1.20, which allows Bar presidents to invite non-voting members to meetings to ensure diverse representation. The Board's Rules Committee was directed to review the recommendations and provide a report in June.

In other action, the Board also voted to recommend approval of The Florida Bar's 2020-2021 budget. The budget is being submitted to the Supreme Court for final approval.

Board members nominated several colleagues to fill three positions on the Board's Executive Committee and voted by electronic ballot to appoint: Jay Kim, Michael Orr and Paige Greenlee. They also approved the following special appointments: Richard Lawson and Warren Chin for ABA House of Delegates; Michael Alan Sneeringer, Catherine A. Cullen, Matthew Gissen, Mark Alan Journey, and Whitney George to Florida Lawyers Assistance, Inc., Board of Directors; and, Rafael Martinez to Florida Medical Malpractice Joint Underwriting Association.

Final Report of Recommended Changes to the Uniform Rules of Procedure

April 27, 2020

An ad hoc committee of the Executive Council of the Administrative Law Section of The Florida Bar was appointed by then-Chair Judge Gar Chisenhall and tasked with reviewing the Uniform Rules of Procedure and recommending any appropriate changes. Members of the Committee are: Paul Drake (Reporter), Seann Frazier, Judge Yolonda Green, Judge Elizabeth McArthur, Judge Li Nelson, Shaw Stiller, Judge Dave Watkins and Larry Sellers (Chair).

The Committee met 13 times over 15 months. It benefited greatly from numerous public comments. The Committee initially solicited suggestions and then developed several drafts that were distributed for comment, including drafts dated June 18, September 18 and November 4, 2019, all of which were posted on the Section web site and distributed to all Section members via e-mail. Updates on the Committee's work were provided to the Section's Executive Council in June and November 2019. The Second Report of the Uniform Rules of Procedure Committee dated November 1, 2019, may be viewed here.

Following this Second Report, the Committee solicited and evaluated additional comments and issued yet another draft for comment, dated January 31, 2020. This draft also was posted on the Section's web site and distributed to all Section members via e-mail. The Committee received several new comments, and it approved final recommended changes at its last meeting, on April 27, 2020. The recommended changes are attached. They also may be viewed here.

The recommendations show the specific changes in legislative format, and a comment section following each rule describes each change to that rule. The recommended changes address, among other things: filing by e-mail, new requirements for qualified representatives, contents of the notice of rights, new requirements relating to service of papers, appearances by specifically-named persons, intervention, additional requirements in connection with the duty to confer, a new rule regarding disqualification of the presiding officer, the computation of time, informal proceedings, emergency action, and bid protests.

The Committee requests that the Executive Council approve these recommended changes for transmittal to the Administration Commission, which has the exclusive authority to propose and adopt changes to the Uniform Rules of Procedure.

The Uniform Rules were last updated in 2013 based on recommendations from the Section. For a summary of these changes, see the April 2013 issue of the ALS newsletter. As in 2013, any amendments to the Uniform Rules will become effective only if formally proposed and adopted by the Administration Commission in accordance with the rulemaking process in the APA.

Summary of Proposed Amendments to Uniform Rules of Procedure

Shaw Stiller

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO UNIFORM RULES OF PROCEDURE
Shaw Stiller

As amended by Chapter 97-176, Laws of Florida, the Administrative Procedure Act directs the Administration Commission – the Governor and Cabinet -- to adopt one or more sets of uniform rules of procedure to govern agency conduct. See § 120.54(5)(a)1., Fla. Stat. Like the statutory chapter they implement, the uniform rules must by definition establish one procedure – singular, not plural. All agencies subject to Chapter 120 must comply with these uniform rules unless granted an exception by the Administration Commission. See § 120.54(5)(a), Fla. Stat.; Gaston v. Dep't of Revenue, 742 So. 2d 517, 521 (Fla. 1st DCA 1999).

The Administration Commission adopted the original uniform rules of procedure on April 1, 1997, as Chapters 28-101 through 28-110 and 28-112, Florida Administrative Code.<sup>1</sup> As of that date, any existing, agency-specific rules or practices inconsistent with the uniform rules were subject to an automatic “legislative repeal” by operation of Section 120.545(5)(a), Florida Statutes. Dep't of Corr. v. Saulter, 742 So. 2d 368, 370 (Fla. 1st DCA 1999); see Madison Highlands, LLC v. Fla. Hous. Fin. Corp., 220 So. 3d 467, 471 (Fla. 1st DCA 2017) (“a rule cannot serve as an exception to the Uniform Rules because the Administration Commission has not approved it as an exception”).

The uniform rules have been amended several times in the twenty-three years since their adoption, with the most recent changes being accomplished in 2013. Several agencies have applied for and been granted exceptions to the uniform rules. See, e.g., Fla. Admin. Code Rr. 25-40.001 (Public Service Commission) and 40E-0.101 (South Florida Water Management District).

The recommendations for the 2013 changes to the uniform rules were initially developed by an ad hoc committee from the Administrative Law Section of the Florida Bar. The committee recommendations were presented to and approved by the Executive Council before consideration and adoption under Chapter 120 by the Administration Commission.

In 2019, an ad hoc committee of the Administrative Law Section was again convened to review the uniform rules and determine whether six years of experience, administrative proceedings, changes in laws and rules, and judicial review illuminated any opportunities for improvement. The following are the 2019 ad hoc committee members:

Administrative Law Judge Yolanda Green
Administrative Law Judge Elizabeth McArthur*
Administrative Law Judge Li Nelson*
Administrative Law Judge David Watkins
Larry Sellers, Chair*

<sup>1</sup> Chapter 28-111 relating to Court Costs for Court Facilities was adopted separately in April 1998 and repealed in June 2012.

Paul Drake, Reporter
Seann Frazier
Shaw Stiller*

*Also served on the 2013 ad hoc committee.

The Committee's work included some 13 meetings over 15 months. It benefited greatly from numerous public comments. The Committee initially solicited suggestions and then developed several drafts that were distributed for comment, including drafts dated June 18, September 18 and November 4—all of which were posted on the Section web site. The Committee also directly requested solicited input from the Administrative Law Judges of the Division of Administrative Hearings, the Administrative Law Section, the Florida Government General Counsels' Association, the Florida Government Bar Association, and the Environmental and Land Use Law Section. The Chair of the ad hoc committee presented the Executive Council of the Administrative Law Section updates on the committee's progress and proposed rule revisions in June and November, 2019.

Following this second report, the Committee solicited and evaluated additional comments and issued yet another draft for comment, dated January 31, 2020. The Committee received several new comments and issued its recommended changes, dated April 27, 2020.

CHAPTER 28-101 ORGANIZATION

Rule 28-101.001: Statement of Agency Organization and Operation

The existing rule provides that the Statement of Agency Organization and Operation must inform the public "whether" documents can be filed by facsimile or e-mail. The ad hoc committee has proposed that the rule be amended to require that the Statement "describe the manner" by which documents can be filed by facsimile or e-mail. Notably, existing uniform rules require that the Statement contain the name and e-mail address for the agency clerk and include a statement that "filing shall mean received by the office of the agency clerk during normal business hours . . . ." Fla. Admin. Code rr. 28-101.001(2)(d) & 28-106.104(1).

If this proposed amendment is adopted, an agency wishing to retain or adopt a practice of not accepting documents for filing by e-mail or facsimile could apply for an exception.

The ad hoc committee received several comments from agencies highlighting the differences in cost and complexity between electronic filing and submitting documents by e-mail. The proposed amendments to this rule recognize this difference and leave to each agency the decision on whether to accept electronic filings.

The proposed amendments would also require the Statement to list the holidays and other days on which the agency will be closed and the manner the agency will use to notify the public of unscheduled agency closures. A separate proposed amendment to Rule 28-106.103, discussed below, would place “any other days on which the agency clerk’s office is closed” in the same calendar category as Saturdays and Sundays for purposes of calculating deadlines.

Finally, the proposed rule would include a provision for an annual review and update of the Statement.

CHAPTER 28-105 DECLARATORY STATEMENTS

Rule 28-105.0027: Intervention

Neither the current rule nor its predecessor<sup>2</sup> contain an express allowance for a party granted intervenor status in a declaratory statement proceeding to submit any written filing other than a petition to intervene. Even without express allowance, agencies have accepted and considered responses filed by intervenors in the course of issuing declaratory statements. See, e.g., In re: Petition for Declaratory Statement of Seascape of Little Hickory Island, Final Order No. DS19-044 (Dept. Bus. Prof. Reg. Dec. 10, 2019); In re: Petition for Declaratory Statement by the Town of Indian River Shores, Final Order No. PSC-16-0093-FOF-EU (Public Serv. Comm. Jan. 5, 2016).

The committee has proposed a revision to the rule to provide a person granted intervenor status the right to file a response to the petition for declaratory statement within seven days of being granted intervention or within a longer period if specified by the presiding officer. No reply may be filed absent leave granted by the presiding officer.

The remaining revisions to this rule are editorial and non-substantive.

Rule 28-105.003: Agency Disposition

The one amendment to this rule eliminates unnecessary language regarding the duty of collegial bodies to take action only at duly noticed public meetings.

CHAPTER 28-106 DECISIONS DETERMINING SUBSTANTIAL INTERESTS

PART I: GENERAL PROVISIONS

Rule 28-106.103: Computation of Time

The amendment to this rule proposes to place “any other days on which the agency clerk’s office is closed” in the same calendar category as Saturdays and Sundays. Deadlines that fall on such days would be extended until the next day on which the agency clerk’s office is open, and those days would not be included in computing periods of time less than 7 days.

Rule 28-106.104: Filing

The proposed amendment to Rule 28-106.104 would add a requirement that every pleading submitted by a Florida attorney in a Chapter 120 proceeding include the attorney's bar number. Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.515(a), which contains the familiar requirement that an attorney's Florida Bar number be included on "[e]very pleading and other paper of a party represented by an attorney," applies only to filings in the courts of the state and not to those made with agencies. While many attorneys currently include their Florida Bar number on administrative pleadings, a practice which allows an Administrative Law Judge to efficiently determine whether the party is represented by counsel or a proposed qualified representative, the proposed amendment would make this inclusion a uniform requirement.

The amendments would add a provision requiring any pleading to have consecutively numbered pages.

The other changes to this rule relocate some language to Rule 28-106.110, "Service of Papers," in order to promote a more clear understanding of how pleadings subsequent to the initial submission are to be served by the parties.

Rule 28-106.105: Appearances

The current rule allows a potential qualified representative to file a request for hearing on behalf of a party and then file the written request for qualification as a representative at a future time "as soon as practicable, but not later than any pleading filed by the person seeking to appear on behalf of the party." The proposed amendment to this rule would require the party on whose behalf a qualified representative files an initial request for hearing to file the appropriate papers for qualification of the representative under Rule 28-106.106 not later than 7 days after assignment of the presiding officer.

Rule 28-106.106: Appearances

With few exceptions,<sup>3</sup> every non-attorney who represents a party before a state agency must file for and be approved as a qualified representative to act in that capacity. The proposed amendments to the uniform rules were drafted to provide clarity to this process.

The statutory authority for representation by a non-attorney in administrative proceedings is found in section 120.57(1)(b), Florida Statutes, which provides that all parties have the right "to be represented by counsel or other qualified representative.” The proposed rule amendments clarify that counsel means a member of the Florida Bar in good standing and add, for the first time, a definition of “qualified representative.”

The rule is also proposed to include a provision noting that an attorney licensed to practice in one or more jurisdictions other than Florida must file a request to appear as a qualified representative. This amendment is consistent with current agency interpretation and application of Chapter 120. See, e.g., Amelia Tree Conservancy, Inc. v. City of Fernandina Beach, 2019 WL 4572118, at *2 (DOAH Case No. 19-2515), Final Order No. 19-201 (Dept. Economic Opp. Oct. 18, 2019); Lessinger v. Office of Financial Reg., 2009 WL 642003, at *3 (DOAH Case No. 08-3102), Final Order No. 0370-S-9/07 (Office of Financial Reg. Jan. 30, 2009).

When the qualified representative does not file the initial pleading but a party subsequently wishes such representation, the current rule requirement that the party must file the request “as soon as practicable, but no later than any pleading filed by the person seeking to appear on behalf of the party” would continue to apply.

One of the required elements of a request for a qualified representative is an affidavit sworn to by the representative setting forth their qualifications. If the affidavit does not sufficiently set forth the representative’s qualifications, the presiding officer may summarily deny the request. See Medina v. Vecellio and Grogan, Inc., DOAH Case No. 15-5548, Order Denying Motion/Request for Leave to be Represented by a Qualified Representative in this Case (Div. Admin. Hrgs. May 2, 2016).

The amendments add five content requirements to the representative’s sworn affidavit:

1. A list of all proceedings in the past two years in which the representative has been granted or denied authorization as a representative.
2. A statement as to whether the representative has been denied admission to the Florida Bar or the bar of any other jurisdiction.
3. A statement that the representative has read and will comply with Chapter 120 and the Uniform Rules of Procedure.
4. A statement that the representative has read and has knowledge of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure relating to discovery in an administrative proceeding.
5. A statement that the representative has read and has knowledge of the Florida Rules of Evidence, including the concept of hearsay in an administrative hearing.
6. A statement that the representative is knowledgeable regarding the factual and legal issues involved in the proceedings Requirements four through six in this list appear in the existing rule as matters to be considered by the presiding officer but not as content requirements for the affidavit. Fla. Admin. Code r. 28-106.106(3)(b)-(c). The committee recommendation would address this apparent incongruity.

The first three matters listed above are not in the current rule as affidavit requirements or matters to be considered by the presiding officer. This information is included for consideration by the presiding officer. Neither the current rule nor the proposed amendments provide for automatic disqualification or specify any other treatment based on a specific response.

If the proposed representative is a lawyer but not a member of the Florida Bar, that person must also include in their affidavit a list of jurisdictions in which they are licensed to practice and a certification that they (1) have not been disbarred, (2) have not resigned in lieu of discipline, (3) are not inactive due to incapacity, and (4) are not currently suspended as a disciplinary sanction from practice in any jurisdiction. A lawyer meeting any one of those four criteria would be disqualified from representing a party in an administrative proceeding. This list is an expansion of the current rule, which provides only one automatic disqualifying criteria for a non-Florida attorney seeking to be a qualified representative (being disbarred in another jurisdiction).

Rule 28-106.107: Standard of Conduct for Qualified Representatives

The amendment to this rule would add compliance with Chapter 120, the Uniform Rules of Procedure, and “all other applicable statutes and rules” to the code of conduct for qualified representatives.

Rule 28-106.110: Service of Papers

The primary purpose of the “strike all” of this rule is to consolidate as many provisions and revisions as practicable into one rule which will govern all service in administrative proceedings unless another method is expressly required by another law, such as Section 120.60(5) or 766.303, Florida Statutes. There are several proposed amendments to the current method for service.

1. E-mail service is mandatory if the both filer’s and recipient’s address of record includes an e-mail address.<sup>4</sup>
2. E-mail service made after 5:00 p.m. is deemed service as of 8:00 a.m. the following day.
3. Filings must be accompanied by a certificate of service.
4. If the certificate of service is in the form prescribed in the rule, the certificate is prima facie evidence of service in compliance with the rule.

These revisions bring service in administrative proceedings more into line with the service in the courts of this state under Rule 2.516, Florida Rules of Judicial Administration.

<sup>4</sup> Pursuant to Rule 28-106.104(2)(d), all filings with the agency are required to include “any e-mail address . . . of the person filing the pleading.” The combination of this existing rule requirement and the proposed amendment would make service by any means other than e-mail the rare exception.

Please be mindful that parties, attorneys, and qualified representatives are responsible for serving documents and pleadings, and that no courtesy function of the Division of Administrative Hearings or its website relieves anyone of that duty.

Rule 28-106.111: Point of Entry into Proceedings and Mediation

Section 120.569(1) provides mandatory minimum contents for an agency's notice of rights. The agency's notice must inform the reader as to whether an administrative hearing is available, explain the procedure for obtaining a hearing, and state the time limits that apply. The existing rule echoes the statute and the above requirements, adding only that the notice must advise persons of certain mediation rights.

The existing uniform rule authorizes a person to file a motion for an extension of time to file a petition or request for hearing so long as they file the motion with the agency within the time required for the initial pleading. However, the rule does not require the agency to advise the public of this opportunity in the notice of rights.

The statute being implemented provides that the agency notice "shall state the time limits which apply" to filing a request for hearing. An extension directly affects time limits.<sup>5</sup> Accordingly, the committee has proposed that the rule be amended to require the notice of rights to advise that a person may request an extension time and that such a request must state good cause shown for the extension.

To ensure internal consistency with the proposed amendments to Rule 28-101.001, amendments to this rule are also proposed to require the notice of rights to include instructions on filing by e-mail or fax and, if applicable, instructions on how to electronically file documents.

PART II: HEARINGS INVOLVING DISPUTED ISSUES OF MATERIAL FACT

Rule 28-106.201: Initiation of Proceedings

The committee proposes an amendment to this rule to add a new subsection (4), which would provide that specifically-named persons who are the subject of the agency's proposed action may become a party to the proceeding by entering an appearance as a respondent and identifying how their substantial interests will be affected rather than filing a petition or request for hearing.

Examples of such a specifically-named persons include the successful bidder or permit applicant named in the agency's notice or intended notice of decision. That person would generally have no sufficient reason to file a petition or request for hearing regarding a successful bid or application but would likely realize an impact to their substantial interests if a petition is filed by another party to contest the notice or intended notice. Under the proposed amendments, that person could enter an appearance, become a party to the proceeding as a respondent, and raise issues in support of the agency's determination or defenses to issues raised in a petition.

<sup>5</sup> In Long Bar Point, LLP v. Lake Flores I, LLC, Petitioners timely filed for and the District granted two thirty day extensions of time to file a request for hearing regarding intended agency action to issue a surface water management permit. DOAH Case No. 17-5609, Final Order No. SWF 20-005 (SFWMF Feb. 25, 2020). Petitioners filed a request for hearing within the second extension period and the District referred it to DOAH, stating in the referral letter that "[t]he District has determined that the request is timely."

Rule 28-106.204: Motions

A proposed amendment to this rule would require a moving party to indicate in her or his motion whether another party intends to file a written response. The current rule requires only that the moving party indicate whether another party has any objection. Whether another party objects or not, the presiding officer can more expeditiously enter a ruling on the motion if timely informed that no response will be filed.

Rule 28-106.205: Intervention

The existing rule contains the content requirements for a motion to intervene. One proposed amendment to this rule would require an intervenor seeking to raise new issues to include in the motion to intervene additional information akin to a petition or request for hearing, including a statement of all disputed issues of material fact, a concise statement of ultimate facts, a statement of the statutes and rules that require reversal or modification of the agency's position, and a statement of the relief sought.

A cross-reference is proposed for inclusion in this amended rule for consistency with the "specifically-named person" provision proposed to be added to Rule 28-106.201, and to insure these persons will be treated by the presiding officer as a party (with independent rights) as opposed to an intervenor (with rights dependent on a party).

A further amendment to the rule is proposed to incorporate the standard for intervention developed in the case law; that is, intervention is in subordination to, and in recognition of, the main proceeding, unless otherwise ordered by the presiding officer.

Rule 28-106.2115: Motions to Disqualify

The statutory guidance for a party seeking to disqualify an administrative law judge is brief: "Any party may request the disqualification of the administrative law judge by filing an affidavit with the division prior to the taking of evidence at a hearing, stating the grounds with particularity." § 120.569(2)(a), Fla. Stat. There are currently no rules implementing this provision.

In this absence, administrative law judges have relied upon the procedure established in Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.330, "Disqualification of Trial Judges," for guidance. See Palm Beach Farms Rural Preservation Committee, LLC v. Palm Beach County, DOAH Case No. 18-6308GM, Order Denying Petitioner's Motion to Disqualify at 3 (DOAH Oct. 14, 2019); Dept. of Financial Servs. v. Hunter, DOAH Case No. 12-3622PL, Recommended Order at 4 (DOAH June 26, 2013).

The committee has proposed new Rule 28-106.2115 to provide a uniform procedure by which a party may request the disqualification of an administrative law judge. Much of the new text mirrors the provisions of Florida Rule of Judicial Administration Rule 2.330, while adjusting the process to comport with the timeframes in Section 120.569(2)(a), Florida Statutes.<sup>6</sup> Because of this parallel, case law interpreting the Rules of Judicial Administration will be instructive in considering disqualification administrative proceedings.

Rule 28-106.213: Evidence

Current Rule 28-106-213 provides “[i]f requested and if the necessary equipment is reasonably available, testimony may be taken by means of video teleconference or by telephone.” The proposed amendment to this rule would further specify that a party seeking to offer testimony by telephone in their case in chief must file a motion for leave with the presiding officer 5 days prior to the date noticed for the final hearing. The party offering the telephonic testimony would have the duty to ensure a notary is present with the witness and to file a written certification with the presiding officer from the notary “confirming the identity of the witness, and confirming the affirmation or oath by the witness.” Fla. Admin. Code r. 28-106.213(5)(b). These amendments are consistent with current practice at DOAH. See, e.g., PNC, LLC v. Dept. of Revenue, DOAH Case No. 18-4464, Order Granting Request to Take Telephonic Testimony at Final Hearing at 1 (Jan. 28, 2019); Dept. of Health v. Adebisi, DOAH Case No. 18-4813PL, Order Granting Motion to Take Telephone Testimony at 2 (Oct. 26, 2018).

Rule 28-106.214: Recordation; Translator or Interpreter

The Uniform Rules do not currently contain a process to designate a translator or interpreter for a witness or party, leaving to the discretion of the parties the most appropriate manner to bring the matter to the attention of the presiding officer. See, e.g., Vogel v. Hernandez, DOAH Case No. 06-1039, Prehearing Stipulation at 4 (DOAH Sept. 29, 2006) (“The parties will need a translator for a number of witnesses that may testify during the hearing.”). Given the variety of persons who may be called upon to act as a translator or interpreter, sufficient notice may be desirable to ensure the accuracy of the subject testimony. See Dept. Bus. Prof. Reg. v. Calix, DOAH Case No. 06-2329PL, Recommended Order at 7 n.1 (husband acted as translator for Respondent/wife); Dept. of Bus. and Prof. Reg. v. Honore, DOAH Case No. 07-4601, Recommended Order at 3 (DOAH Jan. 2, 2008) (daughter acted as translator for Respondent/mother); Dept. of Health v. Crisp, DOAH Case No. 17-1832PL, Recommended Order at 3 (DOAH Sept. 28, 2017) (“An official translator provided by the State of Florida was sworn in to translate all testimony for Respondent as English is not her first language.”).

The new proposed rule subsection would require a party seeking to use a translator or interpreter to provide a notice to all other parties 7 days prior to any hearing. This notice must contain the identity of and contact information for the translator/interpreter, the nature of the translation/interpretation services, and a disclosure of the relationship, if any, between the translator/interpreter and the person for whom these services will be performed.

<sup>6</sup> Compare § 120.569(2)(a), Fla. Stat. (“[a]ny party may request the disqualification of the administrative law judge by filing an affidavit with the division prior to the taking of evidence at a hearing”) and Fla. R. Jud. Admin. 2.330(d) (“[a] motion to disqualify shall be filed within a reasonable time not to exceed 10 days after discovery of the facts constituting the grounds for the motion”).

Rule 28-106.217: Exceptions and Responses

This rule is proposed to be amended to ensure the method of service for post-hearing submissions is consistent with proposed Rule 28-106.110. No other substantive changes are intended.

PART II: PROCEEDINGS AND HEARINGS NOT INVOLVING DISPUTED ISSUES OF MATERIAL FACT

Many of the changes to this Part are identical or nearly identical to their counterparts in Part II, Hearings Involving Disputed Issues of Material Fact. The most significant proposed changes are found in Rules 28-106.302 & 106.3045 (discussed below).

Rule 28-106.3015: Amendments of Petitions

There is no existing rule regarding the amendments of petitions in hearings not involving disputed issues of fact. Subsection 1 of this new rule would establish a rule for such amendments, which rule mirrors the existing one for hearings involving disputed issues of fact (Rule 28-106.202).

Subsection 2 of this new rule would permit a party to amend its petition without leave following an order relinquishing jurisdiction to the agency entered by an Administrative Law Judge. The party could not add new issues of disputed fact that could not have been raised before the Administrative Law Judge.

Rule 28-106.3016: Intervention; Appearances by Specifically-Named Persons

The proposed new rule would add provisions for intervention and appearances by specifically-named persons that mirror those in the rule for hearings involving disputed issues of fact (Rule 28-106.205).

Rule 28-106.302: Notice of Proceeding

This rule is proposed to be reorganized and revised to more closely align with Section 120.57(2). Following receipt of a sufficient petition, the agency would give the parties 14 days to submit evidence in support of or opposition to the agency action or refusal to act, and 7 days thereafter to respond to the other parties' written submissions. The parties could request or the agency could schedule a hearing.

The committee requested comment on a proposed amendment setting a 7-day deadline for the agency to issue a final order following a hearing to implement Section 120.57(2)(a)3. and its directive that the agency provide a written explanation of why it overruled the parties' objections when a hearing is conducted. Id.; see Vicaria v. Dept. of Health, 715 So.2d 285, 289 (Fla. 3d DCA 1998) (Schwartz, J., dissenting). Based on the comments received, the committee removed this proposed amendment.

Rule 28-106.303: Motions

The proposed amendment conforms this rule and Rule 28-106.204 and requires a motion to include a statement as to whether any party has indicated they intend to file a written response.

Rule 28-106.3045: Discovery

The proposed new rule would add provisions for discovery that mirror those in the rule for hearings involving disputed issues of fact (Rule 28-106.206).

Rule 28-106.305: Conduct of Proceedings

The committee is proposing minor editorial changes for clarity and consistency with the counterpart rule in Part II (Rule 28-106-211).

Rule 28-106.306: Recordation; Translator or Interpreter

The proposed amendments mirror those in the rule for hearings involving disputed issues of fact (Rule 28-106.214).

Rule 28-106.307: Post Hearing Submittals

The committee proposes that this rule be repealed for lack of statutory authority.

PART V: EMERGENCY ACTION

Rule 28-106.501: Emergency Action

The committee proposes that this rule be repealed for lack of statutory authority. Additionally, the rule is substantially similar to Section 120.60(6).

CHAPTER 28-110 BID PROTESTS

Rule 28-110.002: Definitions

The only changes update statutory cross-references.

Rule 28-110.003: Notice of Protest

The only substantive change to the rule proposed by the committee is a clarification that the notice of protest is to be filed with the agency clerk unless otherwise specified in the solicitation.

Rule 28-110.005: Bond

The proposed changes to this Rule would clarify that the bond is due at the same time the written protest is filed and simplify the protest bond form. Because such purchases are uncommon, the reference to “exceptional purchases” in the bond form is proposed to be removed.
